CONSORTIUM FOR THE ARTS

2023

AR

Consortium invites you to expand your craft, express yourself, your talents, and your creativity in a diverse and inclusive environment! This year you can choose from the following majors: Musical Theater, Theater Development, Art and Graphic Art. Please note your top three choices.

This year's play is TBA.

Consortium is open to all students entering grades 5-12 (this includes 2023 graduates). This summer's program location will be announced at a later date. All participants will need to provide their own transportation.

Consortium will take place June 19-July 28, Monday-Friday from 8:15am-12:30pm or for extended day 8:15am-3pm. No Camp Tuesday, July 4th.

Consortium provides opportunities for students to have instruction from professionals in each of their fields. Each student will have an opportunity to display their craft at the end of camp.

Musical Theater Majors will perform in this summer's musical performance . Performances will take place July 26th and July 27th.

For Main Stage Musical Theater, students will audition for parts/roles in the show. Everyone who auditions will be cast.

We are offering an extended day option in which students will be able to work with other camp staff and learn the ins and outs of different Consortium classes that they may not get to during half day option. Extended day hours will be cancelled if minimum of 15 campers is not met.

A Parents' Orientation will be scheduled in June before camp starts. Parents are highly recommended to attend. Important topics will be discussed such as the importance of not missing camp.

WEEKLY SUMMER CAMPS

Pegasus Rowing - Learn to Row Camp

Ages: 9-18 (4th-12th Grade)
Location: UM Boat House
Instructor: Pegasus Rowing Staff

This summer, Pegasus Rowing, a high-performance junior rowing club, will be once again providing its one-week Learn-to-Row camp series. These popular camps are open to any athlete, experienced or inexperienced, in 4th–12th grade; no experience is necessary!

The focus of these camps is learning and fun. The notable coaching staff will divide athletes up by age range and ability level ensuring that everyone progresses at their own pace. Athletes will be taught the proper way to row on the water and indoors. They will also learn boat-handling and rowing safety skills. Some on-land skill instruction and team-building activities will also take place.

At the end of the program, athletes will be prepared to join a competitive novice program or wait for the next summer experience! Athletes are welcome to enroll in multiple camp weeks and will be provided with a more challenging program of coaching as they progress.

The Pegasus Rowing Swim Waiver must be completed prior to the first practice session.

At the end of sessions 1&2, high school novices will be eligible for application to the Summer Junior Sculling Team program.
